1. In the course of continuing deportations from Prague, about 500 persons in the 15th district received orders to move during the third week of September.
2. The security police has received instructions that all apartments opposite foreign legations or embassies must be cleared of tenants, so that they can be used for the systematic supervision of foreign representatives.
3. Bulgarian subjects living in Czechoslovakia were ordered by the Czech authorities to return home. This affected a considerable number of Bulgarian immigrants who established themselves as truck gardeners, and who were ordered to leave immediately.
4. In the future all state-owned real estate, will be referred to in the official records by means of code letters only. The Czerna Palace in Prague, for instance has received the code reference "CB".
